ACSA Announces Administrators of Year Award

ORANGE, CA (April 25, 2012) – Dr. Rebecca Roberts, Assistant Principal of Curriculum and Guidance at Villa Park High School, was named Secondary Co-Administrator of the Year by the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA).

Dr. Roberts is being recognized for her dedication to students and her remarkable work ethic. She has a “student-first” mentality and serves as a counselor, tutor, and mentor to many students on campus.

“The time and energy she dedicates to the development and success of Villa Park High School students is commendable,” said Villa Park High School Principal Ed Howard. “A great role model, leader, colleague, and friend, Dr. Roberts brings out the best in us all.”

In addition to the ACSA award, Dr. Rebecca Roberts was named ACSA Region 17 Co-Administrator of the Year for Orange County earlier this year.

Dr. Roberts will receive her awards at the ACSA Region 17 dinner meeting on May 14.

The Orange Unified School District is located at 1401 North Handy Street in Orange, CA
